

Virginia actively pursues creative research in ceramics. In Taiwan she was commissioned for a public artwork at the Yingee Ceramic Museum in Taipei. One of her public art commissions in the United States is outside the corporate Trinity Building in downtown Charlotte. She enjoys exhibiting her work both nationally and internationally.